

What kills more sheep than wolves? Pretty much EVERYTHING.

THE PERCEPTION that wolves are rampant livestock killers simply isn't true. Weather, disease and other predators kill thousands more cattle and sheep. Wolves are responsible for less than one percent of livestock kills. That's it. What's more, livestock owners are compensated for wolf kills, unlike most other losses. Let's resolve conflicts over wolves not aggravate them. Learn and share the facts.

SUPPORT SCIENCE-BASED WILDLIFE MANAGEMENT • Visit westernwolves.org